CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME AND PURPOSES

SECTION A.

The name of this organization shall be "The Vermont Association of FFA". The letters "FFA" may be officially used to designate the organization, its units or members, thereof.

SECTION B.

The objects and purposes of the association, hereinafter referred to as the organization, shall be:

1. To create foster and assist chapters composed of students and former students of agricultural education in the public schools of Vermont which qualify for Federal reimbursements;
2. To develop character, train for useful citizenship and foster patriotism and thereby to develop competent aggressive rural and agricultural leadership;
3. To create and nurture a love of country life by encouraging members to improve the home and its surroundings; to develop organized rural recreational activities and to create more interest in the intelligent choices of agricultural and natural resources occupations;
4. To encourage the practice of thrift;
5. To publish an official magazine and other publications for the members of the organization;
6. To strengthen the confidence of agricultural education students in themselves and their work, to encourage members in the development of agricultural and natural resources occupations and to promote their permanent establishments in such vocations by:
 - a) encouraging improvement in scholarships;
 - b) providing prizes and awards to deserving students who have achieved distinction in agricultural education on a local, State or National basis;
 - c) assisting deserving students financially, through loans or grants, in becoming satisfactorily established in one of the agricultural and natural resources occupations;
7. To cooperate with others, including the State Board of Education, in accomplishing the above purposes: and to engage in such other activities consistent with the foregoing purposes, determined by the governing body to be for the best interests of the organization.

ARTICLE II. ORGANIZATION

SECTION A

The Vermont Association of FFA is the State organization for students of agricultural education. It shall consist of chartered local school chapters.

SECTION B.

1. The local chapters shall be grouped into districts upon recommendation of the Board of Student Officers and a two-thirds vote of delegates assembled at a State Convention. Districts may be disbanded in the same manner.
- 2 A district charter may be issued to any recognized districts in the State.
 - a) The District shall receive this charter upon submitting to the Board of student Officers a copy of its Constitution and By-laws.
 - b) The District shall hold at least two organized meetings each year.
 - c) District Officers shall be elected at the spring district meeting.
 - c) District advisors shall be elected in rotation for one year with recognition given to seniority of service in the district.
 - d) The District Officers shall hold at least one planning meeting before each district meeting. The district president and district advisor shall call the planning meeting of district officers.
 - e) Each chapter shall be represented at district meetings by an equal number of delegates elected at a chapter meeting.

SECTION C.

Active chapters of the FFA for students enrolled in school shall be chartered only in school where systematic instruction in agricultural education of the all-day, day-unit or part-time type is offered under the provisions of the National Vocational Education Acts.

SECTION D.

Members of active chapters shall meet, organize adopt a constitution not in conflict with the State or National constitution, elect officers, sets up a program of work and then apply to the Executive Secretary for membership in the State Association. Upon receipt of a charter from the State Association, the chapter and the members thereof will be recognized as the FFA.

SECTION E.

Collegiate chapters may be established in two or four year institutions where agricultural courses are taught. Membership shall be open to students enrolled in agricultural courses or who are pursuing career objectives in the industries of agriculture and natural resources. Such chapters shall be primarily designed for training their members in the knowledge and skill of advising and maintaining local FFA chapters.

ARTICLE III. PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING STANDING OF CHAPTERS AND MEMBERS

SECTION A.

A local chapter shall be considered to be in good standing with the State Association when the following general conditions are met:

1. All current State and national dues have been paid by a date to be specified by the board of Student Officers.
2. All reports have been submitted to State FFA Office as requested.
3. No provision of chapter constitution is in conflict with the State and National constitutions or P.L. 740. Activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the National organization.
4. The Board of Student Officers shall have the power to suspend local charters upon receipt of evidence of infringement on the provisions of the State or the National constitutions. A report on all suspensions shall be presented to the next succeeding State Convention.

In case any local chapter is not in good standing with the State Association at the time of the opening of a State Convention, the delegates in the State Convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the Board of Student Officers, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the State Convention. When such action is taken the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied the regular privileges of the State Association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the Board of Student Officers not earlier than ten days after the closing day of the State Convention during which it was not in good standing In case a local department of agricultural education in which a chartered chapter of FFA is located is discontinued, the chapter so involved may be permitted to operate officially for a period not to exceed 36 months from date of the discontinuance of the department, providing proper supervision and guidance can be given to the chapter work by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the State Advisor. Local chapter charters must be surrendered to the State Advisor at the end of the 36- month period if a local department of agricultural education is not again in operation in the school at that time.

SECTION B.

An active member shall be considered in good standing when:

1. They attend local chapter meetings while enrolled in the school where the local chapter is established.
2. They show an interest in, and take part in, the affairs of the chapter.
